

A Role Model for Peers

Success Story : Inspiring Young Minds

Ishika Nagarkoti

At Saraswoti Basic School, Ishika Nagarkoti has emerged as a shining star, known for her talent, hard work, and enthusiasm.

Ishika has been an active participant in almost all the Fun & Learn sessions, embracing every activity with great energy and interest. Her favorite sessions include interactive games like Hangman, Simon Says and creative drawing exercises. She describes these sessions as both enjoyable and enriching, saying:

"I have thoroughly enjoyed the sessions conducted so far. The activities have been incredibly engaging and fun for the students. These interactive approaches have brought excitement to the classroom, making learning enjoyable and less intimidating for young learners. The sessions have kept us motivated and eager to participate, fostering creativity and teamwork. I look forward to more creative and exciting sessions ahead."

Ishika's journey highlights how these sessions are helping students develop teamwork, creativity, and a love for learning, inspiring her peers and encouraging regular school attendance.

As we move forward, the goal remains to nurture young minds, instill confidence, and inspire students to embrace education with curiosity and enthusiasm. These success stories motivate us to continue innovating and creating meaningful learning experiences for students across schools

A Leader in Making

Pranita Bista

At Balsudhar School, Pranita Bista has proven to be one of the brightest minds, showcasing exceptional leadership qualities and keen interest in learning. She is also one of the prime examples of how interactive and engaging learning can transform education for young minds.

Pranita stands out not only for her academic brilliance but also for her excellent leadership qualities.

Pranita enjoys the interactive and activity-based approach of the sessions, with "Simon Says" and "Color Bingo" being her favorites. She shares:

"I have truly enjoyed the ELT classes, especially the ones with engaging activities. They have been the most fruitful in helping me build proper sentences in English and improving my speaking skills. These sessions make learning fun and have given me more confidence to communicate in English."

Pranita's story underscores the importance of focusing on speaking skills and how the sessions are helping students like her develop fluency and confidence in English. Her enthusiasm and leadership inspire her peers to engage actively and explore new learning opportunities.
